Story + Art

Shin Wool

It is a single-note
item created from Hester's scale.

It does not stop time, but moves it to the darkness for a short while.

Black Darkness
controls space....

You're right.

This city
has a total of 16
obstacles.

This location was chosen as the

I just have to make the switch.

I have something only
you can do for me

You, Sir Robert. I'll
do anything for you.

Kenneth J.

Spina.

You... I'm here...

I can't live
without you here.

Please don't leave me alone...

Beyond my heavy sleep,

I could see luminescent eyes
gazing at me into the night.

As if I'd... of someone.

It just kept on... that way.

Strange...

I... can't wake up...

Before I had realized,
as if laughing at my foolishness and complacency,

our parting...
came suddenly without notice.

No.

It was always that way...
